

AUS GUIDELINE

Use of alcohol at Snow Unigames

2017

INTRODUCTION

This guideline includes extracts from the AUS guideline on the use of alcohol and where warranted, has been amended to be relevant to AUS Snow Unigames event.. A specific guideline has been developed for this event due to the nature and requirement for the breathalysing of participants.

1. BREATHALYSER TESTING AT AUS SNOW UNIGAMES

To ensure the safety of competitors, officials and general mountain users during an AUS Snow Unigames event, all accredited participants will be required to submit to a breath test prior to their first course inspection or event for each day of competition. This process is unique to AUS Snow Unigames.

- 1.1. Each competitor will be breathalysed by an AUS staff member and/or appointed official at an appropriate location (dependent upon the race location), one hour prior to the start of competition, each day.
- 1.2. Where a participant does not compete in morning competition, they must report to an AUS staff member and/or appointed official prior to their afternoon event, to be breathalysed.
- 1.3. Should the participant complete a breath test where they register 0.00 BAC the competitor will be free to proceed with course inspection and/or competition
- 1.4. Should the competitor complete a breath test where they register greater than 0.00 BAC, the competitor can either:
 - i. Forfeit the right to inspect the course or compete in the event or
 - ii. Return to the end of the marshalling line to undertake the breath test a second time
 - iii. Should the competitor complete a breath test where they register equal to or greater than .00 BAC three times for that event, they will forfeit their right to inspect the course and/or compete in the event

Further disciplinary action may be taken if so desired by the event organisers.
